

CLAIMS

What I claim as my invention is:

1. A free-standing designer leather/textile toilet tissue holder that stores up to six rolls of toilet tissue and comprising of:

a support cylindrical inner structure with a bottom base connected to one end of the said cylindrical inner structure to form a hollow core with an enclosed bottom and the said hollow core having suitable dimension to permit insertion and removal of rolls of toilet tissue, an outer cylindrical shell with an enclosed bottom and said outer cylindrical shell is tailored in various designs using leather or textile and said outer cylindrical shell is larger in dimensions than the said inner structure to permit insertion of the said inner structure, a hinged protective cover with a circular cut out in the middle of the top of said protective cover wherein the circular cut out is replaced with transparent textile material to permit said circular cut out to be a transparent window, a cover grip comprising a piece of textile extending upwards from the top front edge of the cover, a pocket with a flap and said flap is attached over the said pocket at the rear of the toilet tissue holder wherein said pocket conveniently provides storage for air freshener or natural herbs to neutralize odours.

pegs or legs attached to the bottom of the toilet tissue holder by adhesive or other means to gracefully elevate the toilet tissue holder from the floor.

2. Toilet tissue holder as claimed in claim 1 wherein said outer cylindrical shell is tailored in various designs using leather or textile, as Fig 3 demonstrates one of the many designs that can be applied.

3. Toilet tissue holder as claimed in claim 1 wherein said transparent window is centrally located on top of the said protective cover to permit viewing and identifying the contents of the toilet tissue holder by looking through the said transparent window.

4. Toilet tissue holder as claimed in claim 1 wherein the said cover grip is secured between the front top edge of the cover which said cover grip facilitate ease of griping to open the toilet tissue holder.
